Scam e mails

Please be aware that my e mail was hacked this week. In future, should you receive any requests for financial help purporting to come from me at any time, please delete immediately without opening any attachment or replying to the e mail. My password has now been changed and, over the next month or so, I will have a new e mail address which, for awhile, will run parallel with the present e mail address. I will keep you informed.

Parish Website

There is a heading 'In Memoriam' in the website in which you are invited to share a brief reflection on someone who has died who was important to you, with a photograph if possible. You are also invited to share something on what it means for you to be a parishioner of St Anne's Parish - 'Our Parishioners'. Please submit either or both to Fr Teddy, by e mail or handwritten. Very little has been received for either to date.
