Parish Website

The parish website is presently under construction. You are welcome to share with Fr Teddy or Peter Griffin any ideas you may have about what the website should contain. You are also welcome to share just how you think parish information should best be communicated to parishioners of all ages.

Christian Unity Week

On Wednesday 18 January the annual week of prayer for Christian Unity begins. This is especially significant this year because 2017 celebrates 500 years since Martin Luther made his protest about abuses in the Catholic Church. Pope Francis has honoured this through prayer-filled meetings with Lutheran Christians. Let us together this week pray for mutual understanding and acceptance of each other.

Local Non Catholic Ministers

If you have contact with any ministers of other Christian denominations within the parish, please let Fr Teddy know. I am trying to make contact with them throughout this special year.

Warwick Deanery Readers' Training Day

There is a second training day at St Gregory the Great Church Stratford upon Avon on Saturday 28 January from 10.30am - 4.30 pm for those who read at Mass on Sundays. This is to facilitate those unable to attend the first training day during September 2016. It would be good if at least some of our readers could attend this day. If you intend to be present, please let Fr Teddy know or inform Kate Tennyson on 01926 314077 or kate.tennyson@googlemail.com

Dates for your diary

Some dates for your diaries for 2017 will follow next Sunday. If there are particular dates I should avoid, please let me know so that together we can try to co-ordinate the diaries of schools, parish and personal so as to enable as many people as possible to attend parish events.
