Parish Website

The parish website is presently under construction. You are welcome to share with Fr Teddy or Peter Griffin any ideas you may have about what the website should contain. There will be a heading 'In Memoriam' in which you are invited to share a brief reflection on someone who has died who mattered a lot to you, with a photograph if possible. You are also invited to share something on what it means for you to be a parishioner of St Anne's parish - 'Our Parishioners'. Please submit either or both to Fr Teddy - e mail is best but handwritten is equally acceptable and I would welcome contributions as soon as you can prepare them.

A Lenten Menu for Lent 2017

Traditionally, Lent has been seen as a time for self deprivation, 'giving up', saying 'no' to whatever is experienced as pleasant or enjoyable, all with the hope of us becoming 'better people'. We are commanded by Jesus 'to repent' often without any real awareness of just what it all means. By implication, it means 'turning our lives around'.

I invite an approach to Lent 2017 in a spirit of reflection, awareness and contemplation. In the hope that it might be helpful, I have devised a 'Lenten Menu' with different and varied 'courses' for each week. See what you make of it.
