Parish Website

The parish website is presently under construction. You are welcome to share with Fr Teddy or Peter Griffin any ideas you may have about what the website should contain. You are also welcome to share just how you think parish information should best be communicated to parishioners of all ages.

Local Non Catholic Ministers

If you have contact with any ministers of other Christian denominations within the parish, please let Fr Teddy know. I am trying to make contact with them throughout this special year.

Dates for your diary

Some dates for your diaries for 2017 will follow next Sunday 5 February. If there are particular dates I should avoid, please let me know so that together we can try to co-ordinate the diaries of schools, parish and personal so as to enable as many people as possible to attend parish events.

Invigilators at Princethorpe College
