SUNDAY'S READINGS

Isaiah 60:1-6	The prophet celebrates the return of the exiles to Jerusalem and looks forward to the day when the pagans will make their way to the Holy City.
The Psalm	This psalm celebrates the ideal king, who is the source of justice and compassion for the poor.
Ephesians 3:2-6	St Paul speaks of the mystery of the epiphany or appearance of God in the person of Christ and the fact that the pagans can participate in the salvation that he brings.
Matthew 2:1-12	The story of the visit of the wise men picks up a number of Old Testament motifs: the birth of the Messiah in David's town of Bethlehem; the memory of the brutal King Herod; the belief in the East as the source of wisdom; the star as a messianic symbol; and the promise that the pagans would one day accept the God of Israel.

THANKS Fr Stewart is very grateful for your generous Christmas offerings and for the many cards and other gifts that he has received.

THANKS to all who have helped during the year in the running of the parish in so many ways: the organist and chorister; the servers; the readers; the church wardens; the leaders of the children's liturgy; those who arrange the flowers; those who clean the church and the brass and take care of the altar linen; those who organize the coffee mornings and Fairtrade stall; those who mow the grass and tend to the grounds and cemetery; the finance and building committees; and the cemetery office.

EPIPHANY The Greek word Epiphany (epiphanos), meaning appearance or manifestation, is used to describe Jesus' first appearance to the Gentiles. Originally the word Epiphany referred to the visit of a king to the people of his provinces but for Christians "Epiphany" refers to God's self-revelation in the person of his Son Jesus. It is an older celebration than the feast of Christmas, having originated in the East in the late second century. In Italy and Spain, the gifts traditionally associated with the Christmas season are exchanged today, on the feast of the Epiphany. In the Western Church, the feast commemorates the coming of the Magi as the first manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. In the Eastern Church, the feast also commemorates the Baptism of Christ. In fact many different revelations are suggested by the Feast of the Epiphany. The angels revealed Jesus to the shepherds and the star revealed him to the Magi, who had already received hints of Him from the Jewish Scriptures. Later, the Father revealed Jesus' identity to Israel at his Baptism in the Jordan. In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus revealed himself as the promised Messiah. Finally Jesus revealed himself as a miracle worker at the wedding of Cana, thus revealing his Divinity.

RETIRING COLLECTIONS January 15 – Pax Christi; February 5 – LIFE; February - Racial Justice. All these are so-called voluntary collections, meaning that the Parish priest is not required to hold them, but it seems simpler, as they are all good causes, to leave it to the parishioners to make their own judgment.

CRIB APPEAL There are two boxes by the Crib, one for the work of the Friends of the Holy Land and the other, as suggested by the Archbishop, for the work of "Origins" (see his letter or Fr Hudson's Care).

HOME - THE ART OF DYING WELL See www.artofdyingwell.org A new website offering a helping hand to those grappling with issues surrounding death and dying. Based on Catholic tradition but open to all, it features real-life stories about dealing with the journey through death to eternal life.

"..... mindful of the struggle that so many people (including Mass-going Catholics) have in speaking about death, this is something that people can be directed to for use in their own time. Dying well means different things to us all. Death is an individual experience, but a community of accompaniment on the journey can help us to prepare by bringing consolation and spiritual peace

POPE FRANCIS' ADVICE FOR FAMILIES "The love of friendship unifies all aspects of marital life and helps family members to grow constantly. This love must be freely and generously expressed in words and acts. In the family three words need to be used. I want to repeat this! Three words: 'Please', 'Thank you' and 'Sorry' – three essential words! When we are not selfish and can say 'Thank you'; when someone realizes that he or she did something wrong and is able to say 'Sorry', our families experience peace and joy. Let us not be stingy about using these words but keep repeating them day after day" (Amoris Laetitia n. 133)

REFUGEES AND MIGRANTS PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Merciful Father, God of all nations, we come before you as the people you have chosen as your own. You led your people from slavery to freedom and accompanied them throughout the traumatic journey. Your Son, Jesus, was born far from his family's home and they sought safety in another place soon after his birth. Hear our pleas for the people who have left their homeland amid tragedy, war and circumstances not of their making. You know each one by name and the secrets of their hearts, the pride in their heritage, the richness of their story. We ask your blessing on those who show hospitality to migrants and refugees on our behalf. Open our hearts that we never suffer indifference. May our prayers and words be accompanied by deeds that make a difference. Change the hearts of those who make dangerous journeys necessary, and those who exploit the desperate. As we cherish life, so may we be Christlike in our efforts to welcome the stranger, to love our neighbour, so that when we reach our longed for homeland, we may find in you then the welcome that we have offered others now. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GREEN ELECTRICITY Thanks to a new alliance between IFM and Churchmarketplace, over 3200 parishes in 16 dioceses in England and Wales (including St Charles) are now buying 'green' electricity together from renewable sources, doing their bit to look after our common home, in harmony with the Pope's call to care for the environment (Laudato Si). At the same time we are getting competitive prices.

ST MARY IMMACULATE PRIMARY SCHOOL The recent Diocesan Inspection team (religious OFSTED) commented upon outstanding teaching, learning, monitoring and leadership. The pupils were described as "confident and secure" and "eager and attentive". They noted too that staff were "enthusiastic and dedicated", demonstrating "unswerving commitment". Older pupils were described as "dedicated at looking after their younger peers" and this coupled with "high expectations" and "opportunity for every pupil" means that the school continues to go from strength to strength. Very strong exam results underline the excellence of the school. Year 6 SATS results this year were over 20% higher than National Averages, whilst Year 1 and 2 also surpassed the National profile! Full details of these are on the school's website at: stmaryimmaculateschool.co.uk. What is more, an impressive 25% of Year 6 passed their 11+ exam and are looking forward to beginning grammar school in September.

CATECHIST TRAINING Any volunteers to do the Catechist's course at Maryvale to help with our sacramental programmes next year?

NUCLEAR WEAPONS A statement from the Catholic Bishops' Conference: "We recognise the grave responsibility for national security that rests with our government and our parliament. We know that those charged with making the decision on whether to renew the UK's nuclear weapons programme will reflect seriously on whether their possession acts as an effective deterrent. We ask them to reflect too on the view that the use of nuclear weapons can never be morally justified as their use would cause the mass deaths of innocent civilians and does not fit within the Just War tradition. Such use could never be a proportionate response" and "Parliament now has an opportunity to reinforce the extension and implementation of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty to which the UK is a signatory, and which obliges all who possess nuclear weapons to work towards their elimination. We pray that the decision taken by Parliament will include the intention and the steps to achieve that undertaking: the complete elimination of these weapons". When Pope Francis addressed the United Nations, he concluded: "An ethics and a law based on the threat of mutual destruction – and possibly the destruction of all mankind – are self-contradictory... There is urgent need to work for a world free of nuclear weapons, in full application of the non-proliferation Treaty, in light and spirit, with the goal of a complete prohibition of these weapons."

THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF LEAMINGTON The three churches of Leamington, Whitnash and Lillington will be run, in effect, as one parish with three priests. The new week-end Mass times are from now on: Saturday: 12.30 Vigil Mass at Our Lady's and 5 p.m. at St Peter's. Sunday: 8 a.m. at St Joseph's, 9.30 at Our Lady's, 11.30 at St Peter's and 5.30 p.m. at St Joseph's.

DROUGHT IN ETHIOPIA Message from CAFOD: "Ethiopia has experienced two failed rainy seasons, made worse by one of the strongest El Niño weather patterns recorded. Farmers are losing their crops, water sources are drying up, and families are struggling to feed themselves and their animals. How you can help. "Whatever anyone is able to give; £5, £20 or £100, they must know that they are saving lives." £16 can buy 100kg of maize to feed a family of five for a month; £35 provides a monthly food basket containing wheat, cooking oil and pulses; £83 can provide 100kg of wheat seeds for farmers to sow".

THE JOY OF LOVE This latest document from the Pope is his response to the two recent Synods on the Family. As he says, it is a long document and is not meant to be read at one session. We must beware of press interpretations, as it will require careful reading and guided interpretation. It seems to be stressing individual and personal conscience rather than Canon Law, at the same time not changing Church teaching. It may lead to a change of practice rather than a change of teaching. We need to pray for divine guidance in its implementation. There is a copy at the back of church £4.95. It is available from www.rpbooks.co.uk but is also available on the Vatican website www.vatican.va

BRUSHSTROKES Community Project has launched a new project in partnership with Father Hudson's Care and Caritas Archdiocese of Birmingham. As the refugee crisis continues, groups that support asylum seekers and refugees face an increasing demand for services. In 2014, Brushstrokes saw an unprecedented demand for their support and with more people fleeing countries that are being ravaged by war and oppression, this demand is expected to increase throughout 2016. Teresa Clements, Project Manager, and Sandra Tittel, Outreach Coordinator, have worked out a programme of training to help other parishes develop services to support refugees and asylum seekers locally. Drawing on their broad experience, they will visit parishes to provide training, workshops, mentoring and support to other organizations, helping them to develop their services. The training will raise awareness about issues faced by refugees and asylum seekers and provide advice on how to engage newcomers. It will cover befriending skills to support refugees through the difficult transition phase of adapting to life in the UK, mentoring for volunteer teachers on delivering English lessons and will advise parishes on providing practical resources. An added benefit from the workshops will be the opportunities to meet and share good practice with other groups who are working to reach the same goals. A long-term aim of the project is to develop a support network of parishes across the Archdiocese. WORKS OF MERCY Corporal Works: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. Spiritual Works: admonish the sinner, instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray the living and the dead

INDULGENCES What are they? When we sin, there are two effects. Firstly, we offend God and secondly we inflict damage on ourselves in some way. In Confession we obtain God's forgiveness but the consequences of sin remain. That is what is meant when we speak of the temporal punishment due to sin. If we do not "pay this penalty", by extra good works and prayers in this life, Purgatory will do the rest. Indulgences are a way of wiping out these consequences. A plenary indulgence frees one from all temporal punishment due to sin. This gift can also be gained for other people, living or dead.

INDULGENCES - THE CHURCH'S SPIRITUAL TREASURY. Indulgences will be a big part of this Year of Jubilee and so it will be well to rehearse the teaching of the Church on this matter. Since the Church is the Body of Christ with each of us its members, whatever one does affects the others. So every good action, especially those of the saints, builds up a sort of spiritual treasury into which we are privileged to dip. The Church specifies the means of access. In the early centuries the penitential system was mainly concerned with serious sins (murder, apostasy, adultery etc.) and the penances were rather severe and could have included things that could take time, such as a pilgrimage. This would have taken x number of days. So when prayers began to be substituted for such penances, the idea arose that they would be the equivalent of the number of days the pilgrimage, for example, would have taken. That is why the old prayer books used to indicate the number of days that the indulgence was worth

JOHN PAUL II AWARD This award is specifically for young people who have completed their GCSE's and who are ready to commit time to help in the Parish. This could involve reading at Mass, cleaning, helping at the children's liturgy etc. etc. They would also record hours of service in some sort of social action, which could be anything from being a volunteer coach for a sports team, fund-raising or even being a handmaid (or the male equivalent) at Lourdes. This award is a great way to recognize the achievement of committed young people and also to encourage and support young people on the fringes to engage more deeply in parish life and as a disciple of Jesus. <http://www.bcys.co.uk>

GALLOWS HILL DEVELOPMENT Traditionally this was the site of the martyrdom of the Warwick Martyrs in 1595 (Blessed William Freeman) and 1604 (Blessed John Sugar and Blessed Robert Grissold). FIVE PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH What are they? (1) You shall attend Mass on Sunday and holy days of obligation and abstain from work or activities that offend against the character of the day. (2) You shall receive the sacrament of Penance at least once a year. (3) You shall receive the Eucharist at least during the Easter season. (4) You shall observe the prescribed seasons of fasting and days of abstinence (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday). (5) You shall contribute to the material support of the Church. What is the purpose of the precepts of the Church, and how binding are they? The "Five Precepts of the Church" with their minimum requirements are supposed to remind us that one cannot be a Christian without making a moral effort, without participating personally in the sacramental life of the Church, and without union with her in solidarity. They are obligatory for every Catholic Christian. (YOUCAT questions 345-346).

MISERICORDIAE VULTUS THE FACE OF MERCY From the beginning of his Pontificate, Pope Francis has made it his priority to carry God's mercy to the whole world. In this new document, the Holy Father calls us to reflect upon the mystery of mercy, especially the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, and place a renewed emphasis on the Sacrament of Reconciliation so that the witness of believers might grow ever stronger. www.ctsbooks.org 0207 640 0042 orders@ctsbooks.org

EVANGELII GAUDIUM/THE JOY OF THE GOSPEL In this "exhortation" (a response to the deliberations of the synod of bishops on the New Evangelization) Pope Francis says: 1. The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born anew. In this Exhortation I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church's journey in years to come. see www.vatican.va

WHAT ARE CREEDS? Creeds are brief formulas of faith that make it possible for all believers to make a common profession. Brief formulas of this kind can be found already in the letters of St. Paul. The early Christian Apostles' Creed has a special dignity, because it is thought to be a summary of the faith of the apostles. The Nicene Creed is highly esteemed because it resulted from the great councils of the Church when Christendom was still undivided (Nicaea, 325; Constantinople, 381) and is to this day the common basis for the Christian in the East and the West. (YOUCAT question 26).

How did the creeds come about? The creeds go back to Jesus, who commanded his disciples to baptize. In doing so, they were to require of the people seeking Baptism the profession of a definite faith, namely, faith in the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Trinity). The original cell from which all later creeds grew is the profession of faith in Jesus the Lord and in his missionary mandate. He told his apostles, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). All the creeds of the Church are elaborations of the faith in this Triune God. Each of them begins with a profession of faith in the Father, the Creator and preserver of the world, then refers to the Son, through whom the world and we ourselves have found redemption, and concludes with a profession of faith in the Holy Spirit, who is the presence of God in the Church and in the world.
