Mary. Mother of my Lord,
I thankfully remember your God-centred life, doing His will in all things, without regard to the cost:
how you were the only one found fit to be the means of Jesus becoming one of us: how you loved and cared for Him, and told others to obey Him in all things:
how you stood by Him at the Cross, and how He loved and cared for us even as He was dying.
As He loved you, may I love you too, and follow your advice to obey Him always.
Please pray for me that I may always be faithful to Him as a member of His Body the Church no matter what the cost.
