- UK NATIONAL REFUGEE WEEK 19-25th JUNE. VISIT OF THE LAMPEDUSA CROSS TO OUR PARISH 18 JUNE – 2ND JULY 2017. After his election, Pope Francis' first visit outside of Rome was to the tiny Island of Lampedusa off the Italian coast. It is to here that thousands of refugees fleeing violence and persecution made their way by boat across the Mediterranean Sea. Tragically, thousands of people were drowned here when their boats capsized. When Pope Francis celebrated the Mass on the island he was given a cross to carry that had been made by the carpenter Francesco Tuccio out of drift wood from capsized boats washed up on the sea shore. Francesco made other crosses to be sent out across Europe to remind people of the flight of refugees and their perilous journeys; looking for safety and often finding no welcome but barriers of barbed wire, suspicion, and condemnation. We are very pleased that the CAFOD has provided us with a reproduction of the Lampedusa Cross: the cross will be visiting St Gregory's Church Sunday 2nd July.
