Parish Diary for 2018

Please take a copy of the parish diary as you leave this morning and enter the appropriate dates in your personal//family diary. Some dates have yet to be confirmed.

Parish Website

With the help of the Digital Ambassadors' Club at Princethorpe College, St Anne's Parish website is now up and running. You can visit the website of stanneswappenbury.wordpress.com. Please see especially the section on 'In Memoriam' as a model of what you can have placed on the website. Photos enliven the website. Now we need your contributions to bring this website to life, to make it interesting and to keep it up to date. You can help immediately with 'In Memoriam' and 'Our Parish'. The young people in the club are just great. Let us give them all the help we can.

Christian Unity Week

Hugh, the local vicar for St John the Baptist Church Wappenbury and three other churches, and myself invite you to join with us in St Anne's Church at 7.30pm on the evening of Wednesday 24th January for a short evening prayer followed by supper. Our intention: that we would simply meet and get to know each other; to hear also what different churches are doing in this area. It would help if you could indicate your intention to be present.

Rota for cleaning St Annes

Please see, at the back of the church, the rota for the cleaning of St Anne Church. Please give a little of your time to this important task. This can be done at a time to suit you.

Weekly Collection Counters

To comply with diocesan guidelines, the weekly collection needs to be counted by a variety of counters each week. In this parish, this can best be done after the 10.15am Mass on Sunday at Princethorpe. This task will take no more than a maximum of 30 minutes. Will you please give a little of your time to this task? There is a rota at the back of the church if you wish to volunteer.

Princethorpe Foundation

Please see, as you leave, a separate sheet with information about employment vacancies at the Princethorpe Foundation.
