Representatives from the Shakespeare Hospice and from the Walsgrave Hospital are pictured here with Maurice Griffin (seated) and some of the Lent Lunch cooks organised by Catherine Smith as cheques for £450 and £600 respectively were presented last Tuesday. Thanks were given to all who helped raise £1,050 over Lent for two excellent causes. A splendid buffet lunch was enjoyed by all who came

Two members of our congregation, Teniel Sullivan and Tobias Lambe have been selected to attend the World Scout Jamboree in 2019. On Saturday the 7th April they are holding a community breakfast to raise funds for this. 9.30 am to 11.0 am at the Graham Adams Centre, Southam.

Have a Chuckle Diddy's lament : "Nobody wanted me, my mother had to tie a pork chop round me neck to get the dog to play with me. And when we played doctors & nurses, I was always the ambulance driver."
