THE WORD THIS WEEK

For the next five weeks we take our leave of Saint Mark's Gospel (since it is not long enough to fill the year) and read Chapter Six of Saint John's Gospel. This is the famous "Eucharistic Discourse" and begins with the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand. A line of the Psalm gives the meaning of today's readings: "The eyes of all creatures look to you (O God) and you give them their food in due time." Our God is the God who provides for his people; the prosperity and fruitfulness of our earth and the mysterious cycles of nature ensures that all have what they need - and have some left over. The actions of Elisha and Jesus are in a sense prophetic: many would say that there is not enough food in this world to go round, just as the two sets of disciples complain that there is not enough for the hundred or the five thousand. But the prophetic action states that this is not true: God provides what is needed. This might prompt us to think about the unfair and unequal distribution of the fruits of the earth: the miracle is a sign of the Kingdom of God - what God wants the world to be like. Perhaps we should take the message of the miracle to heart this Sunday and think about the multitude that still sits in hunger in our world today.

Safeguarding in the Archdiocese: Review

Archbishop Bernard has commissioned a review of current safeguarding/child protection practices in light of the National Catholic Policies and Procedures. This review is welcomed as a means of ensuring that our systems to protect our children and young people are as effective as possible. The review is being conducted by an independent charity called SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence). As part of the review, SCIE would like to speak with any individuals who have had experience with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese.

Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629).

If you feel that you are able to contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant (Hugh.Constant@SCIE.org.uk Or 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207).

Live simply tip: turning off your PC and Monitor each night will save around £50 a year!
