ARCHBISHOP BERNARD LONGLEY has commissioned a review of our current safeguarding/child protection practices as a means of ensuring our systems are as effective as possible. This review is being conducted by the independent charity called (SCIE) Social Care Institute for Excellence. As part of the review SCIE would like to speak to any individuals who have had experience with any safeguarding issues within the Archdiocese and have experience of working with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese. Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629) If you are able to contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant (Hugh.Constant@scie.org.uk or 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207

Quote of the week:

Faith is nourished by memory: How many wonderful things God has done for us! How generous is our Heavenly Father!

Pope Francis

Have a Chuckle An expectant father rings the hospital to find out how his pregnant wife is getting along, but accidentally dials the cricket results service instead. When he asks about the latest progress he is told, "We've got three out and hope to get the rest out by lunch. The last one was a duck"

Cards and Rosaries
and other religious items are on sale in the Porch.

Tea and coffee
will be in the hall after Sunday Mass. Stay & say hello..

Finally... Welcome to our Visitors and any new Parishioners.
