THE WORD THIS WEEK

Despite the fact that the theme of Mass today continues that of last Sunday, there is a new twist: in recent weeks we have been looking at the Bread of Life in a very figurative or spiritual way: today we come right down to (literally) fleshy realities: food and drink, flesh and blood. As we shall see, this is too much for the crowd to swallow, and they will desert Jesus after what he says today. How far we have come from a few weeks ago when the people flocked over the lake to find Jesus after the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand! Despite the complexity of the message, and the reaction of the crowd, there is an elegant simplicity about it all, which the first reading and the response to the psalm highlight: there we hear a simple invitation: "Come and eat, come and drink!" and "Taste and see." Ignorance and folly disappear when they are surrendered to the generosity of God, and we taste the eternal life that Jesus gives us in himself.

Live simply tip for August: try to avoid buying food, fruit & veg sold in non-recyclable containers.

Safeguarding in the Archdiocese: Review

Archbishop Bernard has commissioned a review of current safeguarding/child protection practices in light of the National Catholic Policies and Procedures. This review is welcomed as a means of ensuring that our systems to protect our children and young people are as effective as possible. The review is being conducted by an independent charity called SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence). As part of the review, SCIE would like to speak with any individuals who have had experience with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese.

Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629).

If you feel that you are able to contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant (Hugh.Constant@SCIE.org.uk Or 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207).

The theme of this year's Heritage Open Days is 'Extraordinary Women' which is very appropriate for us. Many residents of Warwick have told us they have never seen the inside of this Grade II listed building designed by E.W. Pugin, or our Hall, the former school. We will be having teas in the Hall, and will be grateful for cakes on the morning or the Saturday evening. There will be a Home Made Stall (we have promises of jams, lavender bags and marmalade so far) and a Book Stall (does your bookcase need a declutter?). The Heritage Open Days scheme requires free admission but we can charge for teas and other sales in the Hall (ideas/suggestions welcome) to make some money for the Maintenance Fund.

Saint John Wall (1620-1679)

John Wall came from a Norfolk gentry family but was born in Lancashire in 1620. His parents were fervent Catholics and sent him, when he was thirteen, to Douai College in northern France; from there he went to the English College in Rome and was ordained priest at 25. He then joined the Franciscan Order at the friary at Douai. When he was 36 he was sent secretly to England to work as a priest in Worcestershire. For 22 years he ministered to Catholics, moving from place to place, often using an assumed name to avoid capture. In 1678 he was arrested at Rushock Court near Bromsgrove as part of the scare caused by the fictitious "Popish Plot". He was condemned to death at the Worcester Spring Assizes in 1679 and was hanged, drawn and quartered on Red Hill at Worcester on 22 August 1679. In his speech at the gallows he said: "I will offer my life in satisfaction for my sins and for the Catholic cause. I beseech God... to turn our captivity into joy; that they who sow in tears may reap in joy". He was canonised by Pope Paul VI in 1970 as one of the Forty Martyrs. Birmingham Ordo
