Words of Wisdom

- Tell me – I will forget
- Show me – I will remember
- Involve me – I will understand

A good mother is worth hundreds of schoolmasters. (George Herbert)

Good luck to all our young people starting the new school year!

Diocesan Education Service – we have received notification that there are to be changes relating to admissions to Catholic schools. A copy of this notification is on the notice board but should you require a copy please contact a Committee member and it will be emailed to you.

Safeguarding and Child Protection

Archbishop Bernard Longley has commissioned a review of the current safeguarding/child protection practices within the Archdiocese in light of the National Catholic Policies and Procedures. This review is to be welcomed as a means of ensuring that our systems to protect children and young people are as effective as possible. This review is being conducted by an independent charity called SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence). As part of the review, SCIE would like to speak with any individuals who have had experience with any safeguarding issues within the Archdiocese, and have experience of working with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese. Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629). If you are able to contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant (Hugh.Constant@scie.org.uk or 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207).

Legacies: the Diocese has made a new leaflet available in all 227 parishes to assist people who may want to consider leaving a legacy to the Church. At the back of the Church you will find copies of this new leaflet. Please do consider whether you, or someone you know , may wish to support the Church in this way. Thank you.

The difference between school and life? In school, you’re taught a lesson and then given a test. In life you’re given a test that teaches you a lesson.
