Christmas Appeals

The Committee has decided that 'presents under the tree' this year should be gifts for the children of Father Damian's home village of Nanka, Nigeria. Our tree will be put in place on Wednesday, 12th December and sincere thanks to Lynn and Robin Goodfellow for agreeing to sponsor it this year. Grateful thanks also to Annette Howell who will be decorating the tree and the windowsills. Further details will be given next week as to suggested donations.

For the homeless

We are asking for donations of warm clothing (ie. scarves, hats, gloves) for those in need and the homeless. A box will be left in the porch where these items can be placed.

Change in Mass time

From the first Monday in the new year, morning Mass will be at the earlier time of 9.00 am. This does of course apply to Monday Mass only.

Dates for your diary

Monday 10th December - Invitation from Annette Howell

Annette invites everyone to 'Christ in the Home' at 7.00 pm Monday 10th December at Lantern House, Featherbed Lane, Pathlow. (Opposite the egg farm).

"We are holding a spiritual and social evening with Mass followed by carols, wine, cake and mince pies. A time for our Church community to come together to celebrate the wonderful season of Advent.

Please come to our home and share this special time together."

Annette Howell (07771 847214)

The World Day of Prayer is at St Benedict's on Friday 1st March, 2019 and is based on the country of Slovenia. Are any parishioners from Slovenia, have friends from there or recently holidayed there? The parish would like someone, male or female, to give a short talk on the country as part of the service on 1st March. If willing to give a talk, provide souvenirs or photographs please contact Margaret Dufty on 01564 792722 or Ann Platt on 01789 488321.

Piety Stall – we now have a very good supply of Christmas cards and Advent calendars for sale at the back of the Church. Please take and look and remember that all proceeds raised go to fund our beautiful Church.

The Catholic Diary, Mass and Prayer Book, 2019, is now available.
