This weekend Archbishop Bernard Longley will personally be addressing the Archdiocese involvement in the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) when an open pastoral letter is read out in all churches.

The letter is available on the Archdiocese website: <https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk>

If you would like to speak to someone about safeguarding and the Church's work, please call 0121 230 6240.

If you would like to speak to someone independent of the Church you can contact the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

Please pray with us for all victims of abuse, and for all those involved in the work of this important Inquiry.

 Next Sunday 11th November is Remembrance Sunday. This is a day for the nation to remember and honour those that have sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom.

The Parade will form up at the Bowling Green Public House car park at 10.15 and then march off at 10.25 the service at St James' church will commence at 10.45am.

'At the rising of the sun and it's going down we will remember them.'

Have a Chuckle:

Two chicken farmers are walking down the lane. One is carrying a sack and the other asks what's in it. 'Chickens,' the man replies. 'How many?' asks his friend. 'I'll tell you what—if you can guess, I'll give you both of 'em.' The other thinks for a moment: 'Six?'

St Mary's School Open Morning: Thursday 15th November from 9.30—11am. Everyone Welcome. Nursery & Reception places available. St Mary's is a 'Good' School. Come and meet the staff and see for yourself.
