Sunday 26th May 2019 Sixth Sunday of Easter C

Dear Parishioners,

'The Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you'. The word advocate has two meanings; it can mean somebody who publicly supports a cause or person, or a person who puts a case on someone else's behalf. In our lives we all need advocates, we all need people who are willing to support us through good times and bad. Sometimes an advocate can help us to learn and to understand things we may not have understood before. In the Gospel today we are reminded that aside from human advocates and friends we have the Holy Spirit as our advocate. The Holy Spirit, which will descend on us again on Pentecost Sunday is with us always. The Holy Spirit teaches us and guides us through good times and bad. So, if sometimes we feel we have nobody who understands us or that nobody is taking our side let us remember that the Holy Spirit is with us always, guiding us along the journey of life and it is the Holy Spirit who helps us to renew the face of the earth.

Enjoy the Europa and Champions League finals this week.

Every blessing, Fr Andy.
