POPE FRANCIS ANNOUNCES THAT BLESSED JOHN HENRY NEWMAN WILL BE CANONISED IN ROME ON SUNDAY 13 OCTOBER 2019

The Fathers of the Birmingham Oratory are delighted to announce that Pope Francis will canonise Blessed John Henry Newman in St Peter's Square on Sunday 13 October 2019 alongside four others. This will make Cardinal Newman the first English person who has lived since the 17th century officially recognised as a saint by the Roman Catholic Church.

John Henry Newman (1801-1890) was ordained as a Church of England priest and soon became the leader of the Oxford Movement but converted to Catholicism in 1845. He founded the Oratory in England and was later made a cardinal. When he died at the age of 89, more than 15,000 people lined the streets of Birmingham for his funeral. Cardinal Newman is widely considered to be one of the most significant figures of the 19th century.

The cause for his sainthood was opened in 1958 and he was declared Venerable by Pope Saint John Paul II in 1991 after his life of 'heroic virtue' was recognised. Pope Benedict XVI declared him Blessed in Cofton Park near Birmingham in September 2010, as part of his historic visit to Britain. The canonisation was made possible by a second miracle attributed to the intercession of Blessed John Henry Newman, consisting in the medically inexplicable healing of a pregnant woman with life-threatening complications due to her pregnancy. The cure took place in Chicago, USA, in May 2013. After an initial investigation carried out by the archdiocese of Chicago, it was submitted to the Holy See in 2018, and approved by Pope Francis on 13 February 2019.

Archbishop Bernard Longley said: "Together with everybody in the Archdiocese of Birmingham I am delighted with the recent news about the forthcoming canonisation of Blessed John Henry Newman. While this is news of international and national significance it has a particular importance within the Archdiocese of Birmingham. It awakens happy memories of Blessed Cardinal Newman's beatification by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010 and I am sure that the canonisation will be a source of great blessings to the Archdiocese and its mission."

A Mass of Remembrance for Fr. Fabian Radcliffe

Fr Fabian was a former Chaplain of Trinity School so it is appropriate that this Mass will be celebrated by Fr. Nick Austin SJ (an ex-Trinity pupil). The Mass is on Saturday 13 July, 5.00 pm at St Peter's Church. The Mass will be followed by a gathering of ex-pupils, parishioners and friends of Fr Fabian. Please bring pictures (on a memory stick for the projector) and share your memories of Fr. Fabian with us. He was a remarkable, loving man who supported local families and was a source of inspiration across Leamington. These memories will be presented in the Church Hall after Mass. please contact Jane knight on janemargknight@gmail.com if you do plan to attend, as this will help with numbers for catering.

Thank you to our Parish Catechists Mary Grayling and Jenny Hayden for preparing these children who attend non-Catholic schools.

We pray for our young people who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop William Kenney next Sunday 14 July. May these days before the celebration be a time of reflection and enrichment of their faith lives.
