St James 'The Greater', Apostle We celebrate the feast of St James this Thursday. He is called the 'Greater' because his vocation to serve Christ proceeded that of the other apostle of the same name. He was the son of Zebedee and was called by Jesus together with his brother John. James was one of the three apostles, along with Peter and John, who witnessed the Transfiguration and the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. He was condemned to death by Herod Agrippa and beheaded in the year 44, the first martyr among the apostles. He is the patron saint of Spain.

St Mary Magdalene was a follower of Jesus. She led a group of women who provided for Jesus and his followers from their own resources.

Mary was there during his Ministry in Galilee and Judea, she heard him teach. Each of the four Gospel accounts of the Crucifixion show that Mary was there, she was faithful to the end. Mary prepared Jesus' body and prepared the spices for proper burial of a body. She also watched as his body was sealed in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea. She could confirm that he was dead.

Mary also witnessed the Resurrection of Jesus on Easter morning. when she discovered that Jesus' body was missing from the tomb. She was the first person to speak to Jesus after the Resurrection.

Mary is called the 'Apostle of the Apostles' because the risen Jesus told her to 'go and tell'
