Ministry of Readers meeting – thank you

My grateful thanks to the readers who attended the meeting at Princethorpe last Wednesday evening. It was an excellent meeting, with active participation from those present. We can be assured of continued faithful delivery of the Word of God each Sunday. There will be some changes in how this happens and in what might be expected of the congregation in both churches. You will be kept informed of these well in advance. If you think that you are called to this ministry and you are not yet engaged in it, please let Fr Teddy know. Another meeting before Christmas is planned.

Parishioners' Questionnaire and The Archbishop's Visitation

It is good for us to prepare for Archbishop Bernard Longley's visitation here in April. The Archdiocese is attempting to draw up a five/ten year program for the Archdiocese. We have our part to play in this by reviewing what is happening in our own parish and by offering constructive suggestions as to how matters can be improved and/or better managed. You are encouraged to take a simple questionnaire with you this morning and, after some personal reflection and perhaps conversation with others, return this completed questionnaire next Sunday. Your responses most definitely matter.

Parishioners' Talents and Gifts

I am grateful for the response from a parishioner to the request, in a recent newsletter, to construct and erect a notice board at St Anne's Church, Wappenbury. It is hoped to erect this before Christmas.

There is another skill you, as a parishioner, could offer: are you experienced in wall tiling? The guest shower cubicle in the presbytery needs re-tiling within the next four weeks. If you can help, please contact Fr Teddy.

Shoe Box Appeal – Teams4U

Donations of money to cover transport costs of the boxes would be greatly appreciated – thank you so much. All donations for the after Mass coffee at Princethorpe are given to Pam Hopwood for the appeal.
