Dear Parishioners

The anticipation and preparation of Advent reaches its conclusion this week when we celebrate our Christmas Mass. We reflect on the Word of God to tell the story of the greatest moment in the history of the world. All who hear the Good News can tell of their own experiences of the Christmas Story. For many it is a happy day but we know that for some it brings memories of sad moments and difficult times – another element in our human family story.

Congratulations to parishioner Peter Sprawson who will be 100 years young on December 25th and who is still very active. He has been a lynchpin of the team of Counters for many a year and I am truly grateful for his hard work. One collection he is spared counting is that of the Christmas Mass which is your traditional gift to the priests of the parish. Every blessing, Fr John.

The clergy of Catholic Leamington wish you a Happy, Holy and Blessed Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

Catholic Leamington

Advent thanks to all our Primary Schools: a Nativity and then a Christmas Concert at St Patrick's School, St Anthony's Christmas Carol Service, and carol concerts in their respective churches from St Peter's and Our Lady & St Teresa's schools. Tales of the unexpected: A few days ago a large box of glue was delivered. The boss wondered who had ordered it. Checking my letter to Father Christmas I see my request for a certain piece of music was changed by predictive text. I knew I should have checked it first. "All I want for Christmas is U-Hoo!" Best woofs, Bertie :-)) xx

Vestments: Some of our Mass vestments have become very worn and tired looking. I have ordered some new Chasubles for the Parish which can also be used when Holy Mass is concelebrated. If you can make a donation, however big or small, towards the cost it would be very much appreciated.

Methodist Church Car Park: Can I kindly ask that we do not use the Methodist Church Car park on Sundays. Our Methodist friends have a service and they require the spaces for their own congregation. We are very grateful to Rev.
