A Message from Father Arul:

Dear Parishioners,

During this Christmastide I wish you all once again, a Happy Christmas. I hope you had a very good Christmas celebration. May the Christ-child continue to bless you, your families, friends and loved ones. May his presence keep enlightening your minds and hearts.

Thank you very much for all the cards, prayers, blessings, gifts and for your generous Christmas offerings. It is very much appreciated.

I shall be away on my annual holiday, visiting my family in India and shall be leaving on Monday 30th December and returning on Thursday 30th January 2020.

During my absence my priest-friends from the deanery and beyond will be celebrating the weekend Masses. I am very grateful to them for their help. During the week, on Tuesdays and Fridays (commencing on Fri 3rd Jan.) there will be the 'Service of the Word and Holy Communion.' The Rosary will be prayed as usual on Thursday mornings. All are welcome.

In case of any pastoral emergency, please contact the office at St Peter's Leamington Spa on 01926 423824 to be guided and /or to get assistance.

Obviously the Feast of our Patron St. Wulstan will not be celebrated on 19th January. However, you will be pleased to know that there will be a celebration on Friday 21st February with Mass at 7.00pm followed by refreshments. Further information on this will be available in due course.

I wish you all a Blessed and Happy New Year for 2020!

With all good wishes and prayers.

Fr Arul Samy
