Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to the clergy from our deanery and neighbouring deanery to celebrate the weekend Masses in January, while I am away on my annual holiday with my family in India. We are grateful for their help and support in helping with weekend Masses and emergency pastoral needs.

Fr Andrew Franklin, Parish Priest of St Joseph's Whitnash, will be celebrating the Vigil Mass this weekend and for the next three weekends.

Canon Stewart will be celebrating Mass this Sunday and also Sunday 26th Jan. Fr Moses Pitya, Parish Priest of St Elizabeth's Coventry, will celebrate Mass next Sunday, 12th Jan. Fr Chris Greaney will celebrate Mass on Sunday 19th Jan. I will be returning from India on Thursday 30th Jan and will be celebrating Mass on Friday 31st at 9.15am.

Christmas Tree & Crib: Christmas Tree and Christmas Decorations will be removed after the Solemnity of the Epiphany. The Christmas Crib will remain until Sunday 3rd Feb when the Church celebrates the 'Presentation of the Lord' (Candle Mass.)

Year of the Word: The Catholic Bishops' Conference of England & Wales has designated 2020 as 'The God Who Speaks': A Year of the Word to celebrate the 10th anniversary of Verbum Domini—Pope Benedict XVI's Apostolic Exhortation on 'The Word of the Lord' and the 1600th anniversary of the death of St Jerome, who translated the Bible into Latin. For further information, please log onto: <http://www.cbcew.org.uk/home/events/the-god-who-speaks/>

I encourage parishioners to read the Bible, even if it is a few sentences each day. Perhaps another easy way is to follow the 'Walk With Me' prayer book which contains daily meditation until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

With all good wishes and prayers, Fr Arul Samy
