Parish Levies from January 2020

The levies proposed and communicated in recent correspondence have been temporarily suspended so that a review can be conducted throughout the archdiocese. The first quarter levy for 2020 will, therefore, be based on the first quarter levy for 2019. You will be kept informed as further information is forthcoming.

If you have any comments to make that you wish Fr Teddy to bear in mind in any diocesan discussions, please email them to Fr Teddy by Tuesday evening, 28 January, for consideration.

Beatification of MSC priests and their lay associates

Below is a communication from the Spanish Provincial of the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, received on Friday. The ten to be beatified were killed in the violence in Guatemala in the 1980s.

“I announce joyful news!

That our brothers: José María Gran, Faustino Villanueva and Juan Alonso, have been recognised by Pope Francis as martyrs of the faith (They gave their lives in the mission of Guatemala).

Seven lay persons will also be beatified along with them.

We hope that in a few months the date and place of the solemn proclamation of their status as Blessed Martyrs will be determined.

Fraternal greetings,

Paco Blanco MSC

Provincial Superior of Spain
