THE WORD THIS WEEK

“Ordinary Time” is simply the “in-between” season, the weeks outside of the big seasons of Christmas and Easter, and their preparation times, Advent and Lent. Ordinary Time presents the story of Jesus in a continuous reading of the Gospels as well as other parts of Scripture. John tells us how he first recognized Jesus at his baptism as the “Lamb of God,” one on whom God’s Spirit rests, the Son of God. And all of us—all who have been baptized in Christ—share that same Holy Spirit and are called to undertake the same mission—being a light to others, serving others, giving of ourselves in love. The season may be called Ordinary Time but our mission is “extraordinary!”
