The levies proposed in recent correspondence have been temporarily suspended. The first quarter levy for 2020 has been based on the first quarter levy for 2019. Further discussion is now underway.

Readers' Review Meeting

Following the recent trial of reading at Mass, please put in your diary Wednesday 4 March at 7.00pm at Wappenbury to come to discuss, review and plan for the future of this initiative. Please confirm with me, by email, your availability to attend.

Team4U Shoe-Box 2020 Appeal - Start Collection Now, Please!

Following a conversation between Helen McGowan and Pam Hopwood, it has come to light that particular items are needed for the campaign for 2020. Please could you begin to collect at home the following items: bars of soap (not liquids), flannels, toothpaste and combs. Please store these at home until they are required in early September.

Teams4U – Clothing Appeal

Teams4U are appealing for childrens', ladies and mens' clothing and shoes. Please donate as many clean, good condition clothes as you can and separate the clothing/shoes into individual bags – boys/girls, mens/ladies, and bring the bags into either St Anne's or Princethorpe, labelled clearly. The donations will be sent to Syria in a special consignment by T4U. Please bring any donations to St Anne's and Princethorpe on Sunday 1 March ready for transport. Thank you so much.

Lent 2020 – Just another Lent or a Special One? Begins this Wednesday

A reminder of just how wonderful we have been created and how generously God has given us this beautiful world to inhabit and to enjoy. A reminder of our great need for gratitude.

A reminder also of the ways in which we may be falling short of God's ideal for us and how this time is given to us to allow God to transform us, personally and in our relationships.

Perhaps it is good for us to plan for these weeks of Lent. We plan for much in our lives – perhaps a plan for our spiritual welfare is called for this Lent.

Each week during Lent, there will be at least one morning Mass and one evening Mass. The days and times may vary in order to offer a choice to all.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available on request at Wappenbury, and in St Peter's Leamington Spa regularly.

Those who are elderly, housebound or ill are offered the Sacrament of the Sick at home on request.

Walk With Me – Lent 2020

This is available this morning in both churches. Please take a copy. More will be available next Sunday.

The Year of the Word 2020

The Catholic Church is, this year, highlighting the importance of the Word of God as read, and listened to, each Sunday. You will notice the effort in this parish to enable you to become more involved, not just in reading the Word of God, but in taking time, before you read on Sunday, to spend some time with Fr Teddy and another parishioner: to study the readings, and for a parishioner to prepare, and to introduce, the readings to us all. This is proving most helpful to those who are involved and to Fr Teddy. Please say 'yes' if you are asked to become involved. It is a rewarding time for all. The meeting, on Wednesday 4 March at Wappenbury, is to review this process so far and to plan for future months. This meeting is open to all, whether you are reading in church at present or not.
