THE WORD THIS WEEK

'Love your neighbour as yourself.' These are words we clearly associate with the teaching of Jesus and the way of life the Gospel calls us to. It may be a surprise to some people to hear that these words come from the Old Testament, in the mouth of Moses himself. Moses was speaking the Lord God's instruction for the community, the community of the people of Israel in flight from Egypt in their long sojourn in the wilderness. God's instructions were about how that community had to work: without grudges, resentment or vengeance, but with love and forgiveness and tolerance. When Jesus comes with the message of the Kingdom of heaven, it is the same: instruction for a perfect, God-guided society, which depends on how each of us lives with others.
