CATHOLIC LEAMINGTON : Second Sunday of Easter A, 19 April 2020

Dear Parishioners

Without doubt the “lockdown” in response to the Coronavirus pandemic has tested every member of our society and every institution. After weeks spent in isolation during some of the most beautiful weather and verdant Spring growth, we are now required to embark on an extended (yet necessary) curb on our freedom and way of life. Sadly there seems to be no end to the virulence of this disease which has closed down our society but, at the same time, has brought out some of the best in our society too.

The Easter weekend was for us all a very strange experience. The live-streamed Masses and services at St Joseph’s have been a boon. Yet celebrating Mass in an empty church (and knowing many members of our congregation are watching) is surreal. On Holy Thursday I ‘led’ a reflection on the Stations of the Cross for children. I spent a lot of time preparing the material to do this in front of a camera. There was little feedback bar two people who said they watched it. I felt very odd delivering this reflection and very out of my depth.

The Triduum services of Holy Thursday, the Last Supper, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil in a way realised an aspiration to celebrate these main events together. Pre-lockdown, the Liturgy Committee for St Peter’s and Our Lady’s discussed a joint service at Our Lady’s for Maundy Thursday. In the end this wasn’t to be, yet there was even better because we celebrated this important moment of our faith as three churches together. At one stage I imagined using the twelve feet of six shop mannequins for the washing of the feet. Thankfully this was one idea that did not reach fruition!

The Triduum is heavily weighted in text but there is also plenty of opportunity for highlighting our Christian symbols. On Thursday the Eucharist is a day of priesthood, service and the institution of the Eucharist. Fr Andy sourced a loaf of bread and some grapes, filled a decanter and draped the priest’s stole to provide a visual message to Mass. On Good Friday the big crucifix was a visual image for us to venerate. We asked each parishioner to venerate their crucifix at home as well as to ‘attend’ the Service in the church. The Easter Vigil always starts with the Easter fire. You could not see it but many heard the fire alarm going off, caused by the smoke in the confined space of the Narthex. Fr Andy was pleased to know the alarm worked! The Paschal candle brought light into the darkness of the church and the readings opened our minds to the story of our faith. The font and water were blessed. In the modern design of St Joseph’s this worked so well as it is situated on the altar – a constant reminder that it is through our Baptism that we have received the gift of eternal life and become members of God’s kingdom. On Easter Sunday we renewed our Baptismal promises and celebrated the joy of the resurrection. It felt wonderful, but odd, because our Alleluias were not returned by the congregation!

I am very grateful to Fr Andy that he has shared the benefits of St Joseph’s web-streaming with Our Lady’s/St Peter’s. I was amazed that families situated overseas were watching our humble Masses. The messages I received through the website showed that these were mostly former parishioners. The experience brought them close in a way which was previously impossible. It suggests to me that web-streaming is going to become an important aspect in the future of the church: for example where people cannot attend because of illness or isolation, where they cannot travel and for many other reasons. Investing in the equipment to set up web-streaming is a necessary expense. But so too is computerisation for the elderly and those members of our population who do not have the internet.

Every blessing, Fr John.

Our Lady's & St Peter's

Easter Thank You: Fr Noel and I would like to thank you for your gifts and offerings for Easter. They are much appreciated.

Thank you also to parishioners who have signed up to give their offertory by Standing Order and to those of you who have already made use of the online card donation option on the website. Offertory envelopes can also be placed through the Presbytery letterbox. I am extremely grateful for your continued support of the parish at this difficult time.

Mass Intention requests can also be put through the letterbox. They could also be posted (with a cheque, not cash), emailed or phoned through on 01926 423824 Ext 0. I could put them on your tab!

St Peter's School is asking for donations of non-perishable food and other household items. Some of the families whose children attend the school are requesting help. Many people are struggling at this time. Lay-offs, redundancies and delayed payments are just some of the reasons. With the unprecedented pressure on Foodbanks, this is another way to help needy parish families.

200 Club: The results are in! First prize C Hayes £50; second prize Clare Lucey £20; and third prize Anthony Coleman £10. Congratulations to the winners!

The Catholic Leamington Justice & Peace Rosary intention for April is: 'We pray for all those who are isolated and lonely at this extraordinary time, that they may be supported by our prayers and practical help'.

Tales of the Unexpected: Lockdown for canines is very good. We now have a proper walk for an hour. We have proper exercise in the garden in the afternoon. And we get proper attention during the day. It's a win, win, win for dogs. Best woofs, Bertie ;-) xx

End note

The lockdown experience has reminded me of the famous words of the Bible from Ecclesiastes Chapter 3. I include it for you with a few added verses based on my own experience of lockdown. Fr John
