Parishioners' Reflections John 11:25 The Resurrection Jennifer Russell

It is hard to envisage a world of utter darkness, without sun or moon or stars. The first words of the Bible – In the beginning – take us right back to when God said 'Let there be light' (Gn.1,3) as He began to unravel the story of making everything from nothing, for our pleasure and delight; without these initial words we would have no Patriarchs or Prophets foretelling the coming of Christ, The Word who 'In the beginning' was with God. (Jn.1:1). When God speaks, He always has something wondrous to say, telling us things eternal. God was pleased with the harmony He created, and as we trustingly pray for peace and healing to be restored in our world today, it is good to know He is God to Whom all things are possible, and to thank Him for sending the Good News found in Jesus, the Easter light that can never be extinguished. Help us always, Lord, to walk in Your Light. Amen.
