THE WORD THIS WEEK

The Church canonises saints in order to give us examples to follow. So far this century, 149 saints have been canonized. Some well known like Mother Teresa & Pope John Paul II. Others only known in their own countries and regions, like Blessed Carlo Acutis, a 15 year old Italian boy beatified by Pope Francis this October. What they all had in common were lives lived according to the Beatitudes; poor by worldly standards because they shared generously with others. They mourned without despairing, were gentle rather than violent, forgave others their failings and hungered for a better world. May we be like them.

Saint of the Week

St Charles Borromeo (1538 – 1584) was Archbishop of Milan 1564 - 1584 and a cardinal of the Catholic Church. He was a leading figure of the Counter-Reformation combat against the Protestant Reformation together with St. Ignatius of Loyola and St. Philip Neri. In that role he was responsible for significant reforms in the Catholic Church, including the founding of seminaries for the education of priests.

The priory in Warwick, built after the 1st Crusade was of the Holy Sepulchre. The flag was up for the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14 which is a particularly important feast in Jerusalem. Please keep the Christians there in your prayers.
