Candlemas And Covid 19 – A Binary Choice?

As we celebrate the Christian Festival of Light (Candlemas) this Tuesday, we hear news of the approval of further vaccines. Conflicting voices cry for our attention. The UK has so far placed orders for 367 million doses of Covid vaccines. Five final contracts have been signed, with AstraZeneca, Pfizer, Moderna, Valneva and Novavax - with the expected cost being £2.9 billion. As of 30 January, about 7m doses have been administered in UK which is such encouragement as to provide some light at the end of the tunnel - for the UK.

Some countries – principally 'third world countries' - do not yet have even a flicker of light at the end (or even the beginning) of their tunnel. A new mantra has emerged and surely this is true. "No one is safe until everyone is safe". According to various officials working towards getting doses for Africa, it "will have to wait weeks if not months before receiving Covid-19 vaccines approved by the World Health Organization". While close to 900 million doses have been secured so far through various initiatives, this is barely enough to inoculate about 30% of Africa's 1.3 billion people.

Which countries have got the vaccines?

That the head of WHO, Dr Tedros Ghebreyesus, could make a remarkable comment on Friday last is worrying indeed. "The world is on the brink of a catastrophic moral failure and the price will be paid with lives and livelihoods in the poorest countries", said Dr Tedros, "with just 25 doses (not 25 million, not 25,000, just 25 in Guinea) administered across all poor countries compared with 39m in wealthier ones". Will it not, indeed, be a huge moral failure - and add to a real medical, human and moral catastrophe – if this continues? This is the sharpest warning yet from Dr Tedros about the dangers of "vaccine hoarding" since inoculations began in 49 high income countries.

When I read this, and having received my first Covid 19 vaccine some days previously, I admit to a feeling of helpless shame. Guilt for having done what is wrong can be heavy to carry, yet shame goes deeper to suggest that I value myself more over and above those of my 'less economically well off' human beings. And the helplessness that accompanies such shame but compounds it. Yet where is my choice, where is our choice, if there is one?

I must receive whatever vaccine is offered to me. My faith, the Fifth Commandment, prescribes this: "thou shall not harm another". Covid 19 must not present a binary choice. It must, as soon as possible, be universally available. So my celebration of Candlemas must speak to me about the humanity I share with millions of those without vaccines or even basic healthcare facilities. And I must keep in mind the present UK government's recent reduction of the Overseas Aid Budget from 7% to 5% - and I have done nothing about it, not even a letter to my MP! Is that part of my shame? Perhaps I am, after all, too 'alright Jack'!

Certainly I will celebrate Candlemas on Tuesday morning and I would love it if many of you can join with me in the morning or perhaps watching the recording later in the day. I will light a candle - a candle to remind me of the acceptance by Mary and Joseph of the humanity of their Son, Jesus Christ. I will light the candle as well in a certain hope that there will come an end to this pandemic and I will pray that the end will not be bought at the expense of our 'third world' men, women or children and that none will be sacrificed on the altar of our desire (and hurry) to return to some (any) type of 'normal'. I will pray for our patience, too, and for our generosity, for our compassion. And I will write to my MP for the overdue 2%!

What about you?

NOTE: THERE WILL BE NO CELEBRATION OF MASS AT 11.00am AT PRINCETHORPE UNTIL AT LEAST SUNDAY 28 FEBRUARY (subject to the restrictions at the time)

Sacraments During Pandemic

You are aware now that we are deprived of the sacraments during the pandemic. While this will continue for some time yet, we must nevertheless prepare for the reception of the sacraments. Preparation for each sacrament will be conducted on line. This pandemic can really be a new God-given invitation to approach our traditional practices in an altogether new and life-giving way.

Baptism: if you have a child/children for baptism, please contact Fr Teddy. Tentative plans can be put in place and preparations can be made for the baptism of your child/children.

First Holy Communion: If you have a child/children whom you consider to be ready to receive their First Holy Communion, please contact Fr Teddy. Neither age nor class in school determines an appropriate time for a child's First Holy Communion. Please contact Fr Teddy.

Marriage: If you are considering getting married, please contact Fr Teddy. There are some marriages already booked for this year.

A Scripture Reading Programme For The Weeks Of This Lock Down

Catholics have not been educated in the scriptures. We are accustomed to hearing (different from 'listening') to them at Mass and there are times when they seem to make no sense whatsoever - and sometimes they really don't! A focused programme of scripture reading can be incredibly enlightening and indeed refreshing – and enjoyable too..

This lock down will probably last about six weeks at least. Time, then, to read the Gospels, the Act of the Apostles and, from the Old Testament, The Book of Job - six books in all, one per week. Starting with the Gospel of Marc (shortest), then Acts of the Apostles (history), then Luke, Matthew (more details and early years of Jesus) and, bringing up the rear, Job (really shows how to engage with God!). For limited ages: between 7 and 100!

If you've not got a bible, I can find you one. How about it?

For Baptisms between 2004 and 2020

In January each year, I check up on those who have received the Sacrament of Baptism in this parish since 2004. If you have not, to date, received a Baptismal Certificate, please contact Fr Teddy. You will be asked to complete a form with all the appropriate details so that these can be checked against parish records. It is important that these be accurate as your child grows up and applies to receive further sacraments.

A Time To Sit With Your Friend This Week

Since we cannot come to church, perhaps we can experience the church in our own homes during the week.

This Wednesday I will expose the Blessed Sacrament between 5.00pm and 6.00 pm in the Prayer Room at Wappenbury. I will use Facebook to stream this for you as I do for Mass. There will be no formal prayer. It is for you take as much time as you wish to be with the Lord and to converse with (and listen to) God.

A simple prayer at 5.55pm and a blessing will end this time in prayer

Re-Opening Of Our Churches And Receiving Communion

The reality now is that, until such time as the virus is under control, St Anne's Church Wappenbury will not open. Of course this is sad, but the only sensible approach to take. Our Lady of the Angels Chapel at Princethorpe will, likewise, remain closed at least until the end of February. I will keep you informed as matters improve and as the roll out of vaccine proceeds. I want to assure you that, as soon as government regulations permit and when it is deemed safe for us all, I will make provision for a return to Mass at Princethorpe and an opening of St Anne's, Wappenbury.

Daily Mass will continue to be streamed at 9.30am each day from the prayer room at Wappenbury.

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains suspended.

Holy Communion For Those Sharing Streamed Mass Daily

Thank you to those of you who have volunteered to take communion to our house bound parishioners. I will explain the details to all those interested so that everyone is safe. Let me know if you would like to have communion at home during lock down. However, let us forgo this for the time being since this virus is now out of control and best we remain at home.

Finally, have you considered inviting someone to join with you, from their own homes, at one of the Masses that are streamed every day at 9.30am? People of all faiths and none seem to welcome this invitation. During these difficult times we really need each other.

Prayer List – Would You Like Any Amendments Or Additions?

If you have any amendments to the Prayer List you would like me to make please do get in touch either with myself, by using the contact details at the top of the newsletter, or with Loretta at lkpcurtis@hotmail.com. It is important in these difficult times that we think and pray for those dear to us and allow our community to pray for them too. Please let me know of any wedding anniversaries, anniversaries of death and any significant birthdays – we would love to share our prayers with you on that day.

Vaccination Programme

Please can I urge anyone who is offered the Covid prevention vaccination to go for it. I had mine last Wednesday afternoon at the centre in Rugby. The whole process was well organized from the reception of the patients, to the jab itself and then the ten minute wait to check you were feeling okay. And no after effects.

Parish Finances

The Finance Committee met last Tuesday and would like to thank all of you most sincerely for your continued support of the parish finances at this difficult time for everyone. If you would like to discuss how you can help in any way with the finance of the parish please email Fr Teddy directly at fr.teddy.obrien@rcaob.org.uk

If you would like to receive a Donations Options Form (this form outlines which of the two accounts your standing order is credited to – either the current account from which the archdiocese levies are calculated or the development account which is solely for the maintenance of the parish estate) please let me know. You can email Loretta at lkpcurtis@hotmail.com and she will send on the form to complete and return to me, please.

The Archdiocesan Financial Statement for 2019 is now available on the archdiocesan website. You will find it on pages 24 – 28 of the diocesan magazine “The Sower”. <https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/diocesan-magazine>

Spreading Our News

Do you know anyone who would like to receive our newsletter by email? Please ask them to contact me and I would be delighted to add their details to my records. Are you willing to deliver a copy of the newsletter to those who do not have internet? Please let me know.

The Parish Is On Facebook! - Thank You Sebastien Buhour

Please take time to ‘like’ and ‘share’ or indeed ‘comment’ the page so that as many of the wider community can enjoy the delights of our wonderful St Anne’s and Princethorpe College. The link to use is <http://www.facebook.com/stanneswappenbury>

Have You Collected The Stamps From Your Christmas Card Envelopes?

Loretta would like to thank those parishioners who have taken the trouble to send her the used stamps in the last couple of weeks. If anyone has saved stamps for the RNIB please leave them with me at the Presbytery or send them to Loretta at 10 Arden Road, Kenilworth, CV8 2DU. However many have been collected will be sent off to the Charity in the next couple of days - thank you.

Can You knit?

Pam Hopwood and the Teams4U shoe-box team are looking for help from anyone who can knit to make mittens in childrens sizes 6-11 years old and 12 years of age and above. Any spare balls of wool sitting around? Please let Loretta know – our merry band of knitters are in need and if you require a pattern please contact Loretta at lkpcurtis@hotmail.com or 07951 256796

Teaching at Princethorpe

If you are interested in teaching opportunities at Princethorpe College why not take a look at our new Teaching at Princethorpe College brochure, please click here. Our next Taste of Teaching at Princethorpe event will take place on Thursday 25 February 2021. Further details will follow shortly.

Training To Become A Teacher at Princethorpe

Thinking of becoming a teacher? Then why not consider training at Princethorpe College. Whether you are a new graduate or contemplating a career change, we have opportunities available across the subjects but particularly for those with a Maths or Science degree.

Though our association with the Lion Alliance, we offer a year's training as part of the School Direct scheme, leading to Qualified Teacher Status. Placements would be at Princethorpe and also at other schools within the Lion Alliance. Our training is supported by Warwick University, Birmingham City University and by our experienced mentors here.

Now in its third year our successful scheme also attracts bursaries from the government of between £7,000 and £24,000 to support those training in Chemistry, Computing, Maths, Physics, Languages and Biology.

Our Assistant Head for Teaching and Learning, Dr Liz Pyne is happy to offer advice about the different routes into teaching and what Princethorpe can offer you. Please email: lizpyne@princethorpe.co.uk

Further information about the Lion Alliance can be found here: www.thelionalliance.co.uk
