THE WORD THIS WEEK

What does it mean to be a follower of the Lord Jesus? Surely to listen and hear his voice, and to go where he leads us. Today, as we enter the ordinary season of the year, we begin our story of Jesus' life and ministry with the calling of the first disciples. John fulfils his ministry - pointing to the Lamb of God - and the disciples follow where he points. His word to them is simple and inviting: "Come and see." This echoes the calling of Samuel - a simple call, by name, which Samuel does not understand: discipleship is about trust, which Samuel shows simply by saying "Speak, Lord; your servant is listening." The Psalm also underlines this, as we (the disciples of the Lord) sing together: "Here I am, Lord! I come to do your will." We hear his call, and we freely go to him, to listen again to the words of the Master.

GENERAL NOTICES

Church opening: St Mary's is open during daylight hours. Please use the sanitising equipment to wipe where you have sat. Alternatively, bring your own wipes. There will also be labels available to put where you have sat so that stewards know where to clean.

Thank you to:

Stewards: for volunteering over Christmas, for cleaning and sanitizing the church and for enabling us to have public Mass this year.

Florists: for putting on such a magnificent display

Parishioners: for their Christmas Offerings: in cards, through the letterbox, via Paypal & the 'CollectTin'.

Recently Dead: Philip Batt, Chris Nichols, Peter Hunt, Keith Statham, Alan Granger. May they rest in peace.

The Justice and Peace group are joining with the Warwick Quakers to host a Zoom seminar on Fair Tax on Mon 25 Jan at 7pm.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Fair Tax initiative should register with John Sheldon, who will then email the meeting details to them.

Saint of the Week: St Wulstan 1008-1095

St Wulstan became a Benedictine monk at Worcester and after serving as Precentor and Prior, was appointed Bishop in 1062. He was the only Englishman to retain his See after the Norman Conquest. His wise and benevolent rule lasted 32 years, during which he rebuilt his cathedral, reformed the diocese and tried to stop the slave trade in Bristol. (English slaves were sold to Norse traders in Ireland until the 12th century.)
