THE WORD THIS WEEK

We spool forward a few centuries in the story of the Old Testament, to arrive at Abraham, “our Father in faith”. Today we hear of another Covenant (like last week) - even though the word is not used. God promises Abraham descendants like “the stars of heaven”, and the showering of blessings. This shows how much God loves Abraham, and all his children. This love is proved for us in Jesus: God loves us so much he sacrificed his only Son (just as Abraham was willing to do); but this is not all: Jesus also rose from the dead, to stand at God’s right hand and plead for us. All this is revealed in the story of the Transfiguration, where Jesus is seen in the glory that is rightfully his as the only Son of God. Not until after the Resurrection will the disciples see this fully again.

Roman Station Churches

San Clemente Monday of the 2nd week of Lent

The church of San Clemente is dedicated to Pope Clement I (35-99AD). It is remarkable archaeologically as it records the history of Rome from the beginning of Christianity up until the Middle Ages. The Basilica is made up of various "layers"; the present building being founded in the Medieval period & famous for its beautiful 12th century mosaics. Underneath the basilica is a fourth century church and underneath that the house of a member of the Roman aristocracy and an altar to the god Mithras.
