THE WORD THIS WEEK

There were two remarkable moments in the story of the Old Testament where God saved his people; one was in the escape from Egypt, the other was the end of their second exile, this time in Babylon, which we hear of today. There was an even greater moment when God saved his people: the work of Jesus Christ, the Son of God – this is what we hear Jesus telling Nicodemus about. The theme is “salvation”: but to understand “being saved”, we must ask “What from?” Saved from slavery, from exile, from human enemies – these are all clear. But the last and greatest salvation brought by Jesus is harder to understand: saved from sin and death. These threaten us as much as any other enemy, and our salvation in Jesus is as real as any other.

Roman Station Churches

Santa Croce in Gerusalemme 4th Sunday of Lent

The Basilica di Santa Croce in Gerusalemme (Holy Cross in Jerusalem) is one of the seven pilgrimage churches in the Eternal City. It was originally part of a Palace owned by St Helena (255-330), mother of the Emperor Constantine. Supposedly built on soil Helena carried back from Jerusalem—leading to the name of the church, described as “in Jerusalem”—the building was designed to house relics of the True Cross and many other relics of the Passion recovered during a visit to the holy city. It was said that she wished to set up a shrine in Rome for pilgrims who could not travel to Jerusalem. The current appearance of the building reflects the mid-eighteenth-century style.
