A Greeting from Father Arul

Dear Brothers & Sisters

I hope that you had a very good holiday or are looking forward to one.

Thank you very much indeed for your warm welcome, love and concern. They are very much appreciated.

Slowly I am settling into the parish, taking time to observe, listen and learn so as to accompany you as well as possible as a co-pilgrim in this joyful venture of God's blessing called 'life'. May He bless us in abundance.

I encourage parishioners to come along to 'The Alpha Course' beginning on Thursday 10th October at Trinity Catholic School, Leamington Spa. Blessed John Henry Newman is being Canonised on Sunday 13th October. Let us thank God for his life, witnessing and achievements. May his life be an inspiration to us all.

In the parish, for the moment, I would like to start visiting all the sick and housebound. Please do let me know if anyone would like/appreciate a visit. Have a very good week. God Bless. Father Arul
